PEOPLE ARE TALKING ABOUT

INCREDIBLE JOURNEY

KEIRA KNIGHTLEY
IN KENYA,
PHOTOGRAPHED
FOR VOGUE,
2007; A VIEW
OF MOUNT
KILIMANJARO.

Take a dare

Whether you dream of climbing Kilimanjaro like Hemingway or riding camelback in Lawrence of Arabia's footsteps, a once-in-a-lifetime journey is the ultimate investment. Consider the fifteen extraordinary new Extreme Adventures from Abercrombie & Kent (akextremeadventures.com), which range from $5,315 for a rugged fifteen-day ascent to the base camp of Mount Everest to $42,595 for an eighteen-day expedition to the South Pole. Wild Frontiers (wildfrontiers.co.uk) specializes in horseback, foot, and ski treks through such destinations as Ethiopia, Laos, Ladakh, and all the "Stans." At $2,500 for two unforgettable weeks, you almost can't afford not to go.—RICHARD ALLEMAN
